The Party uses an open and closed recruitment process, closed recruitment process focused on Party cadres, the recruitment process is open, namely the recruitment process that is carried out is open in general to people who wish to nominate as Legislative Candidates. In the party's recruitment process, there are 2 inhibiting factors, the first is the short deadline. The second factor is the fulfillment of the women's quota. While the supporting factor was the formation of LP2 which facilitated the performance of the Party and recruitment closed to cadre.
