Data collection was carried out by library research, observation, interviews, documentation. Data analysis is done by collecting data, reducing data, presenting data, and concluding data. This research was conducted in Tado'an village, precisely at Lake Sapan Indah tourist attraction. This study aims to determine and describe community participation in the development of the Lake Sapan Indah tourist attraction area in Tado'an Village. This research has five indicators, namely community participation in the planning stage, management stage, development stage, supporting factors and inhibiting factors. The data collection techniques used are purposive sampling and accidental sampling.
CORRESPONDENCE Phone: 081220280630 E-mail: dianatra2001@gmail.com	Through the results of the study, it shows that community participation in the development of tourist attraction areas is going quite well. Community involvement in helping to manage tourist attractions is very influential, this is because the enthusiasm of the community is very high so that it makes a good change in the development of the Danau Sapan Indah tourist attraction which is expected to be a supporting factor in increasing community income.

Keywords: Community participation, Development, Tourism object.

INTRODUCTION
Partisipasi merupakan sebuah kerelaan dalam memberi dukungan baik itu dalam bentuk tenaga, pikiran, material, keahlian serta ikut dalam menikmati hasil dari keikutsertaan dalam berpartisipasi sebagai masyarakat setempat dalam melakukan pengembangan atau pembangunan dalam suatu wilayah yang telah direncanakan oleh masyarakat dan pemerintah setempat.
Menurut para ahli Partisipasi ialah peran atau keterlibatan dan keikutsertaan yang menyangkut
