Vol. xx, No. xx Page :... Published : ... KEYWORDS Implementasi, Anak Jalanan/Pengemis	This study aims to analyze and describe as well as to identify the inhibiting factors for the implementation of regional Regulation Number 7 of 2017 concerning the Prohibition of Giving Money to Street Children/Beggars on the Outsiders of Samarinda City. This type of research uses a qualitative descriptive method. The result of the study show that the implementation of Regional Regulation Number 07 of 2017, has been regulated in detail and very clearly regarding the steps to be implemented by the Samarinda City government in the prohibition of giving money to street children and dealing with the problems of street children, homeless people, beggars and buskers who has always been a phenomenon in all big cities including Samarinda but not optimally. In carrying out these prohibition steps, of course, it does not go easily according to what is expected according to the verses of the regional regulation. However, on the other hand, the Samarinda City Government also received challenges as an obstacle to the ban being carried out.

INTRODUCTION
Negara kesatuan Republik Indonesia yang saat ini tergolong sebagai negara berkembang terus berupaya untuk meningkatkan kesejahteraan warganya. Hal ini sesuai dengan ketentuan UUD 1945 Salah satu tujuan bangsa Indonesia adalah mencapai kesejahteraan. Namun, krisis ekonomi yang melanda Indonesia sejak pertengahan tahun 1997 masih berdampak luas bagi masyarakat hingga saat ini. Hal ini menyebabkan menurunnya berbagai indikator kesejahteraan masyarakat, seperti tingkat pendapatan perkapita yang menurun bukannya meningkat, dengan dampak yang mempengaruhi hampir
